

JERZY LIMON

SCHOLAR AND MAN OF THEATRE, IN THE MEMORIES OF FRIENDS

INTERNATIONAL ONLINE MEETING ON 24 APRIL
1.30 PM CET / 12.30 PM BST / 7.30 AM EDT

This event is part of William Shakespeare's 457th Birthday Celebrations at the Gdansk Shakespeare Theatre and "Jerzy Limon/Prospero" discussion dedicated to the life of Professor Jerzy Limon who passed away in March 2021. The discussion initiates a series of debates entitled: "The Helplessness of a Philosopher". Professor Jerzy Limon was the creator and Director of the Gdansk Shakespeare Theatre, author, translator, literary and theatre scholar of international repute.

At two consecutive round tables, friends and colleagues of Professor Limon will share memories and discuss the importance of his work as a man of theatre and Renaissance scholar.

PROGRAMME 24th April 2021

The event will be introduced by Boika Sokolova and Janice Valls-Russell.

- 1.30 - 2.45 pm CET
Jerzy Limon - Man of Theatre
Chair: Nicoleta Cinpoes
Participants: Alicja Bral, Grzegorz Bral, Javor Gardev, Philip Parr, Luk Perceval, Joanna Śnieżko-Misterek
- 2.45 - 3.00 pm CET
Break
- 3.00 - 4.45 pm CET
Jerzy Limon - The Scholar
Chair: Marta Gibińska
Participants: Michael Dobson, Pavel Drabek, Jay Halio, Peter Holland, Marta Nowicka, Manfred Pfister, George Szonyi, Tomasz Wiśniewski

THE DISCUSSION WILL BE TRANSMITTED ON THE YOUTUBE AND FACEBOOK PROFILES OF THE GDANSK SHAKESPEARE THEATRE, AND AVAILABLE IN ENGLISH ONLY.

